DEFINITION OF AN INDIANA BRED FOR FOALS OF 2002 AND FUTURE:

Any Quarter Horse foaled in Indiana whose dam was registered with the Indiana Horse Racing Commission and entered the State of Indiana by December 1st of the year prior to foaling. The mare must remain in Indiana continuously until foaling. The resulting foal will then be eligible to be registered as an Indiana bred.

OR

In the event a mare entered the State of Indiana and was registered with the Indiana Horse Racing Commission after December 1st of the year prior to foaling, the foal (which must be foaled in Indiana) will be eligible to be registered as an Indiana bred only if said mare was bred back to a registered Indiana Stallion after foaling in Indiana.
